

Timothy Thompson

OF COUNSEL

(803) 227-1105 | tthompson@robinsongray.com

Tim concentrates his practice in the areas of taxation, corporate and commercial law, business planning, estate and trust planning, and probate administration. While his specialty involves tax law, he regularly advises clients on all aspects of business and corporate planning, commercial transactions, and economic development, to include tax credits, grants, and other incentives for commercial real estate developers and business owners.

In addition to his corporate and commercial practice, Tim has extensive experience in family wealth transfer and estate planning, business succession and family trust planning, and probate administration. He is focused on providing high-quality and timely service to his clients and doing all he can to ensure they retain as much of their hard-earned money as possible.
