COURT PRIMARILY FOCUSES HIS PRACTICE ON LITIGATING CASES RELATED TO UTILITY REGULATION, THE ENVIRONMENT, AND INSURANCE.

He has a wide range of experience, including litigating matters in federal, state, and administrative courts, as well as serving in legal advisory and counseling roles during his military service. He has represented and advised clients in matters pending before the South Carolina Public Service Commission (SCPSC) and has litigated and offered counsel to project owners, developers, and contractors involved in complex construction projects. His commercial and regulatory practices also include representing and counseling companies, vendors, and contractors doing business with government entities at all levels. Court's commercial litigation practice has been consistently recognized by Best Lawyers in America.

Court graduated summa cum laude from the Citadel in 2001 and earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Florida in 2004. Afterwards, while serving in the military, he was competitively selected for advanced legal studies and earned a Master of Laws degree with a focus on environmental and natural resource law from Harvard Law School in 2011. He is licensed to practice in both Florida and South Carolina and is an active member of the Bar in both states.

Court retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve and is a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom. His military awards include the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal, The Meritorious Service Medal, and the Iraq Campaign Medal.
