JOSH FOCUSES HIS PRACTICE ON APPELLATE ADVOCACY, ADMINISTRATIVE AND REGULATORY LAW, AND PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY AND ETHICS.

He earned his Juris Doctor, summa cum laude, from the University of South Carolina Joseph F. Rice School of Law in 2026. While in law school, he held leadership positions with the South Carolina Law Review, Federalist Society, and Lincoln-Douglas Debate Society. He was also a member of the Order of the Wig and Robe and received CALI Awards in Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Trial Advocacy, and Legal Writing. Following law school, Josh was inducted into the Order of the Coif and received the President’s Medallion, given to the graduating student with the highest GPA.

Josh's legal experience includes clerkships with the South Carolina Governor’s Office of General Counsel and the South Carolina Senate Judiciary Committee, where he worked on a variety of legal and legislative matters.

Prior to law school, Josh earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Limestone University Honors College, where he was a member of the Criminal Justice Honors Society and the university's football team.
