BETSY FOCUSES HER PRACTICE ON ADMINISTRATIVE AND REGULATORY MATTERS AND COMPLEX CIVIL LITIGATION.

Betsy has extensive litigation experience in both public and private practice, including handling complex matters through investigation, motion practice, trial, and appeal. Over the course of her career, she has represented and advised government agencies, school districts, school boards, health care providers, and other clients in a variety of litigation and administrative matters.

Before joining Robinson Gray, she spent over a decade practicing law in Alaska, working in both public and private practice. Most recently, she served as an Assistant and Deputy District Attorney with the State of Alaska Department of Law where she spent nine years prosecuting homicides and sex crimes. In 2019, she was named State of Alaska Prosecutor of the Year.

Betsy earned her Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from the University of South Carolina School of Law in 2014. While there, she served as Associate Editor in Chief of the South Carolina Law Review, was a member of the Order of the Coif and Order of the Wig and Robe, and received CALI Awards for Torts and Advanced Evidence.
