La'Jessica focuses her practice on business and commercial litigation. She represents clients in a wide range of disputes involving insurance defense, health care and nursing home litigation, and election law.

La'Jessica is very active in the South Carolina Bar Association and serves as the education subcommittee chair of the Diversity Committee. She also serves as the South Carolina Young Lawyers Division co-chair of the Publications committee and Protecting Our Youth committee. La'Jessica is also active in the American Bar Association Section of Litigation and Young Lawyers Division. In January of 2021, La'Jessica was appointed by Chief Justice Donald W. Beatty of the state Supreme Court to serve a three-year term on the South Carolina Access to Justice Commission.

A native of Chester, South Carolina, La'Jessica graduated Magna Cum Laude from Virginia State University in 2011, receiving a bachelors degree in Public Relations and a minor in English. After graduating from the University of South Carolina School of Law, La'Jessica served as law clerk to the Honorable John Cannon Few with the South Carolina Court of Appeals and the South Carolina Supreme Court. Prior to joining Robinson Gray, she served as assistant solicitor with the 11th Judicial Circuit Solicitor's Office prosecuting domestic violence, sexual assaults, and other violent crimes.
